The Northern Ireland Council For Ethnic Minorities

Overview

This charity was removed from the register on 4 Apr 2017

Charity no. 100169
Date registered. 27/06/2014

Public benefits

The benefits flowing from the purpose of The Northern Ireland Council for Ethnic Minorities are: 1. Provide public awareness on racism and multiple discrimination through education and training; 2. Provide advocacy, advice and support services to victims of racial harassment and racist attacks; 3. Capacity building ethnic minority community through... [more]

What your organisation does

Our works are as follows: 1. Identify and presenting views on racial equality to statutory, voluntary and community sector; 2. Policy, research and information; 3. Develop and support community infrastructure for people of different racial group; 4. Capacity building for minority ethnic communities; 5. Racial equality support services; 6. Advocacy... [more]

The charity's classifications

The advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation or the promotion of religious or racial harmony or equality and diversity

Who the charity helps

Asylum seekers/refugees
Ethnic minorities
Travellers

How the charity works

Human rights/equality

Charitable purposes

The purpose as stated under clause 3 (i) in the Memorandum of Association of The Northern Ireland Council for Ethnic Minorities is: 1. The council is established to promote good race relations and to endeavour to eliminate discrimination on the grounds of race and to encourage equality of opportunity within Northern Ireland between persons of different racial groups in Northern Ireland.