Reminiscence Network Northern Ireland

Overview

This charity was removed from the register on 17 Jan 2018

Charity no. 100232
Date registered. 28/08/2014

Public benefits
People are enabled to share ideas, improve skills and deepen their knowledge about reminiscence work. The organisation exists to support, develop and expand the use of reminiscence, life story and life review work as a means of promoting well-being. Reminiscence is currently used with a wide variety of client groups e.g. ‘looked after children’, ... [more]

What your organisation does
The organisation was established to enable people to share ideas, improve skills and deepen their knowledge about reminiscence work. It exists to support, develop and expand the use of reminiscence, life story and life review work as a means of promoting well-being. Reminiscence is currently used with a wide variety of client groups e.g. people ... [more]

The charity's classifications
The advancement of education
The advancement of health or the saving of lives
The relief of those in need by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage

Who the charity helps
Adult training
Carers
General public
Mental health
Older people

How the charity works
Advice/advocacy/information
Education/training
Heritage/historical
Human rights/equality
Medical/health/sickness

Charitable purposes
The company's objects are specifically restricted to the advancement of education, the promotion, protection and preservation of physical and mental health and wellbeing, the promotion, development and support of those voluntary and community sector organisations offering reminiscence services and support, the relief of sickness and the aged and the promotion of the benefit of the inhabitants (hereinafter called “the beneficiaries”) of Northern Ireland in particular and also nationally and internationally throughout the rest of the world ("hereinafter called the “area of benefit”) without distinction of age, gender, sexual orientation, disability/ability, race, ethnic origin, political, religious or other opinion by associating the statutory and local authorities, healthcare providers, voluntary organisations and the inhabitants in a common effort to advance education and promote health with the objective of improving the conditions of life for the said inhabitants and in particular: (a) to enhance and support the health, well-being and quality of life of children and adults regionally, nationally and internationally by the therapeutic practice of reminiscence work and related activities; (b) to relieve persons with dementia and their families through education, training and support using reminiscence and other techniques and thereby alleviating their distress and suffering; (c) to advance reminiscence education, promote awareness and act as a resource among carers, health and social care providers, statutory agencies, voluntary and community organisations and the private sector; (d) to provide accredited training in reminiscence work at Foundation, Intermediate and Advanced levels; (e) to carry out, promote, sponsor or support by means of financial assistance research and study into the use of the therapeutic practice of reminiscence and the needs of those who may benefit from reminiscence and the dissemination of the useful results of such research for the public benefit; (f) to promote or assist in promoting community capacity building programmes and projects for the benefit of the people in the area of benefit who have need of such assistance as a result of their age, disability or infirmity, or social and economic circumstances, in an effort to increase the abilities, health and self-confidence of such people in the area of benefit; (g) to advance any other exclusively charitable purpose as the directors, may from time to time, decide in accordance with the law of charity.