Help with council tax for carers

If you look after someone, you could be eligible to receive a discount on your council tax, or even be exempt from paying council tax altogether. Or you may be able to apply for the Council Tax Reduction benefit to help cover the cost of your council tax bill.

- Exemptions and discounts
- Council Tax Reduction
- How to apply to your council for council tax discounts, exemptions and reductions

Other information and advice

The government's gov.uk website has advice on all aspects of Council Tax and Council Tax Reduction.

Carers UK has advice and information on Council Tax discounts and benefits you may be able to claim.

And the following websites offers advice on benefits options for carers:

- The Money Advice Service
- The Which website
- The Carers Trust website
- The NHS website